Welcome to the norwich pride guide

Saturday 26 July sees the city's sixth annual the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Trans community

Pride, a celebration from for everyone.

Our key events are free, inclusive and family friendly, so we look forward to seeing thousands of you in the city, helping us to turn Norwich into a Rainbow. We'll have our annual parade through the city centre, picnic and entertainments at Chapelfield Gardens and stalls & talks at the Forum. It's up to you to make the day as fabulous as possible by painting your face, wearing a colourful outfit, flying the rainbow flag or simply sharing a and family. It's a day when everyone can feel safe and proud to be themselves - enjoy! Dean Simons, Chair, Norwich Pride 2014

the route

2pm

The Parade - Follow the fabulous sound of the Norwich Samba Band as we parade through Norwich!

We start at Chapelfield Gardens and loop through the city centre, taking in Gentlemen's Walk and passing City Hall before passing through Millennium Plain and arriving back at Chapelfield Gardens. Bring yourselves, bring your friends and family, gay or straight, dress to impress and help us turn Norwich into a rainbow. Look out for the Sing with Pride Choir, who will be singing their socks off to provide a musical rainbow!

3.30pm - 5pm

Pride Show and Speeches at Chapelfield Gardens.

Join us for entertainment around the bandstand after the Parade.

You can find full details of events on the Norwich Pride website.
