WELCOME!

It's my absolute pleasure to welcome you all to the eighth annual Norwich Pride. This is our city's celebration of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans community for everyone. As always, our central events are free and inclusive and we welcome everyone to celebrate with us!

This year is particularly poignant as we remember those taken in the dreadful attack on the Pulse Nightclub in Orlando. This event - and the continuing abuses of LGBT+ people worldwide - highlight why it is more important than ever to show the world that we are a strong global community and we are proud of who we are.

Earlier this year I spoke at the Norwich Stands with Orlando Vigil for Peace and emphasised the importance of allies of the LGBT+ community. Again, these people have never been more important. They are our family and friends and their support is welcome; not just here at Pride, but every day of the year.

At Norwich Pride 2016, let's stand together stronger, taller and prouder than before.

Have a wonderful day!

Andy Futter
Chair, Norwich Pride

ACCESS

Norwich Pride is for everyone and we welcome people of all ages and abilities. Online we have a page providing access information at: norwichpride.org.uk/access

On the day you will find a helpdesk in Chapelfield Gardens with information on Shopmobility, quiet area, location of disabled toilets and other useful information. There is a disabled viewing area at the front of the stage to allow everybody to get involved in the live show. Access stewards will also be available to ensure that you can get around and find what you need as easily as possible.

The change of route for the parade this year means we have increased the number of short cuts should any part of the route prove difficult (see map, page 8)

EVENTS

It's not just about the big day - here is a great selection of events available in the run up to Pride!

Pride Without Prejudice: art exhibition

Monday 25 July, 7.00pm - 9.00pm

Exhibition launch at Saint Margaret's Church of Art, St Benedicts Street. Runs until 6 August.

Out at the Movies:

Cinema City has three great films to coincide with Norwich Pride this year.

22-29 July 'Summertime' (15) uncompromising lesbian love story set in 1970s rural France.

Monday 25 Jul, 8.30pm 'Bayou Maharajah' (15) documentary about "The best black, gay, one eyed junkie piano genius New Orleans has ever produced"

Sunday 31 Jul, 5.00pm 'Time & Tied: Boys on Film' (18 -TBC) POUTFest

A brand new selection of British short films, showcasing some of the UK's best emerging talent.

'Pride' film screening at The Catherine Wheel pub.

Monday 25 July, 7.30pm

Free entry. (Supper available at 6.30pm for just £5.00) Numbers are strictly limited so please book in advance!

The Natasha Curson Memorial Talk

Wednesday 27 July 7.00pm

Annual trans talk with special guest speaker. Please see the Norwich Pride website for full details.

10.00am onwards: Stalls at The Forum, Millenium Plain.

Once again, The Forum and Millenium Plain will be bustling with stalls of all shapes and sizes! Keep an eye out for the official Norwich Pride shop, packed with all the rainbow goodies your heart could desire! There'll also be a few surprises along the way, so be prepared to have fun!

10.30am: Norwich Pride opening ceremony at The Forum

12.45pm: Address by the Lord Mayor

At the steps of City Hall, the Lord Mayor, Councillor Marion Maxwell, will speak to the crowds as we gather to set off for the parade!

1.00pm: Pride Parade through the city.

Join us as we bring the party to the fine city! In a blaze of rainbow colours, we will make our way through the streets with music, dance and smiles!

The parade has a new route this year (see map, page 8) down Gaol Hill, along Bedford Street and London Street, before joining Gentleman's Walk and Theatre Street - finally arriving at Chapelfield Gardens, ready to enjoy the amazing Pride Show!

2.00pm: The Pride Show!

Live on the main stage - see page opposite.

3.00pm: Norwich Pride Question Time in The Big Top

Our popular annual LGBT+ themed Question Time debate takes place this year in the Big Top in Chapelfield Gardens (courtesy of Red Card Comedy Club).

Our speakers include Clive Lewis MP, Chloe Smith MP, Bisi Alimi (HIV/AIDS and international rights campaigner), Katy Jon Went (Trans campaigner - and much more!), Andrew Moffat (leads 'No Outsiders' project) and Andy Futter (Chair of Norwich Pride)

2.00pm onwards: THE PRIDE SHOW!

Main Stage, Chapelfield Gardens

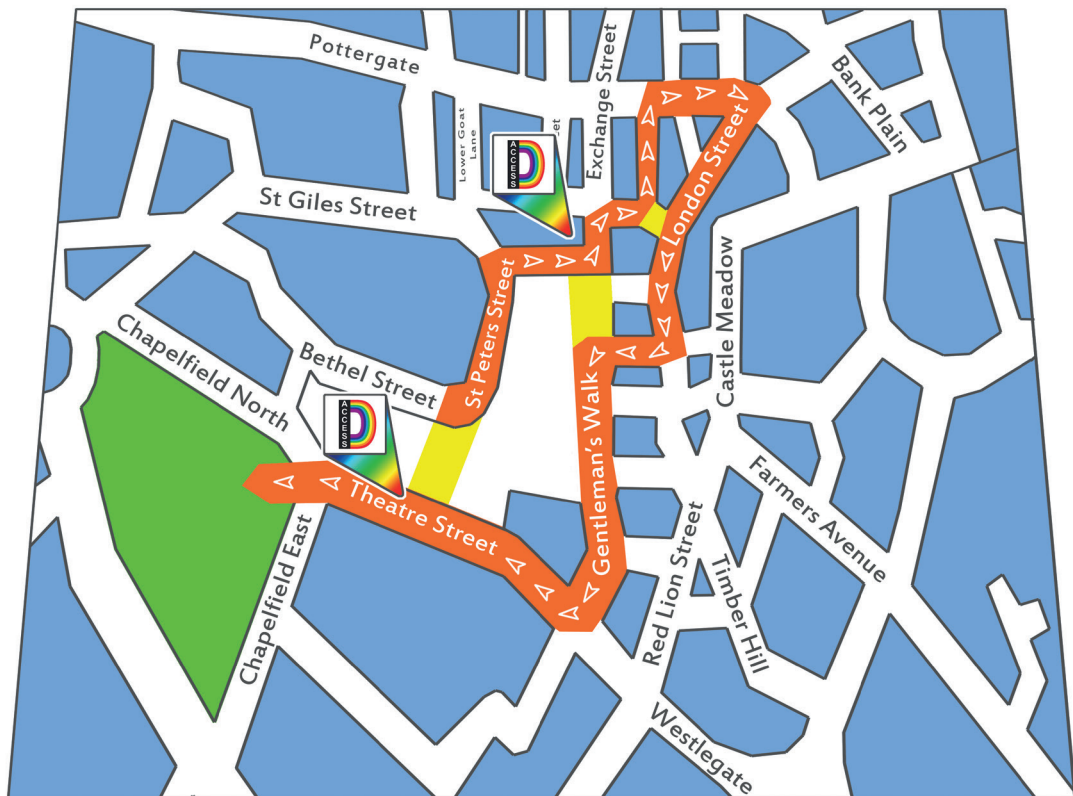

We have a fantastic array of local talent - live on the main stage! The sound system and music is in the very capable hands of DJ Carl of the CMS Roadshow. For more information on ALL our brilliant acts, just visit the website: norwichpride.org.uk

THE PARADE

The parade through the centre of the city is the loud, proud, rainbow-coloured, beating heart of Norwich Pride day! Grab your whistles, your rainbow flags and join in as we walk a new, longer route through the middle of the city. Starting on St Peters Street and setting off at 1pm, the parade will arrive in Chapelfield Gardens ready for the start of the show on the main stage at 2pm!

For those who do not wish to tackle the full route, three short cuts are marked clearly on the map below.

AFTER PRIDE

Pubs, clubs, cafés and more! There will be lots to do before and after Pride at events organised by local venues. LGBT friendly places include The Greenhouse Café, Norwich Arts Centre, Norwich Playhouse and Cinema City. Why not check out one of the Pride parties at LGBT+ venues across the city? Choose from The Castle Pub, The Catherine Wheel, Flaunt, Lollard's Pit, The Loft NR1 - or why not visit them all!

Norwich is home to five LGBT+ venues. They are the beating heart of our community and we encourage you to support them throughout the year.
